

WITH FORTY-FIVE AMENDMENTS AND FOUR RESERVATIONS TREATY AND COVENANT ARE REPORTED TO SENATE

Characterized as an Alliance and Not a League Which "will Breed More Wars Instead of Securing Peace" the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Formally Presents Report

MCUMBER THE ONLY REPUBLICAN ON COMMITTEE NOT SIGNING REPORT

First Great Document of Its Kind Which will be Discussed in Open Senate Session—Some Amendments and Reservations Regarded Vital While Others Effect Phraseology.

WASHINGTON, SEPTEMBER 10. — (Associated Press)—Characterized as an alliance, and not a league, which "will breed wars instead of securing peace," the German peace treaty, including the covenant for a league of nations, was formally reported to the Senate today by the Foreign Relations Committee with forty-five amendments and four reservations.

It will be the first great document of its kind to be discussed in the open—without the confines of "executive session."

Accompanying the treaty was the majority report of the Foreign Relations Committee, subscribed to by every republican member excepting Senator McCumber, of North Dakota, explaining the amendments and reservations, all of which, it was declared, were "governed by a single purpose, and that is to guard American rights and sovereignty, the invasion of which would stimulate breaches of faith, encourage conflicts and generally generate wars."

The reservations proposed:

One—Unconditional right to withdraw from the league.

Two—Declination to assume any of the obligations of the much discussed Article 10, "except by action of the Congress of the United States."

Three—Reserving to the United States the exclusive right to decide what questions are within its own domestic jurisdiction.

Four—Absolute reservation of the Monroe Doctrine to the judgment of the United States alone.

The principal amendments are proposed to provide:

Equal voting power for the United States with Great Britain in the assembly of the league.

Giving to China instead of Japan the province of Shantung.

Relief of the United States from having representatives and commissions deciding matters in which it has no concern.

Others concern phraseology. These amendments and reservations, the majority report says, are submitted "to preserve American independence and American sovereignty, and thereby best serve the welfare of mankind."

Fears that other nations may not accept an amended covenant, the report dismissed with the statement:

"That is one thing that certainly will not happen. The other nations will take us on our own terms, for without us their league is a wreck and all their gains from a victorious peace are imperiled."

That the adoption of amendments will necessitate reassembling of the peace conference the report denies, "asserting that the conference probably will be in session for six months more in Paris, and might as well be at least as usefully employed as they now are in dividing and spacing southeastern Europe and Asia Minor."

German delegates, the report contends, could easily be brought to Paris, and as Germany is not a member of the league, she need not be consulted about changes of the covenant.

VETERANS OF FOUR WARS IN GRAND ARMY VICTORY PARADE

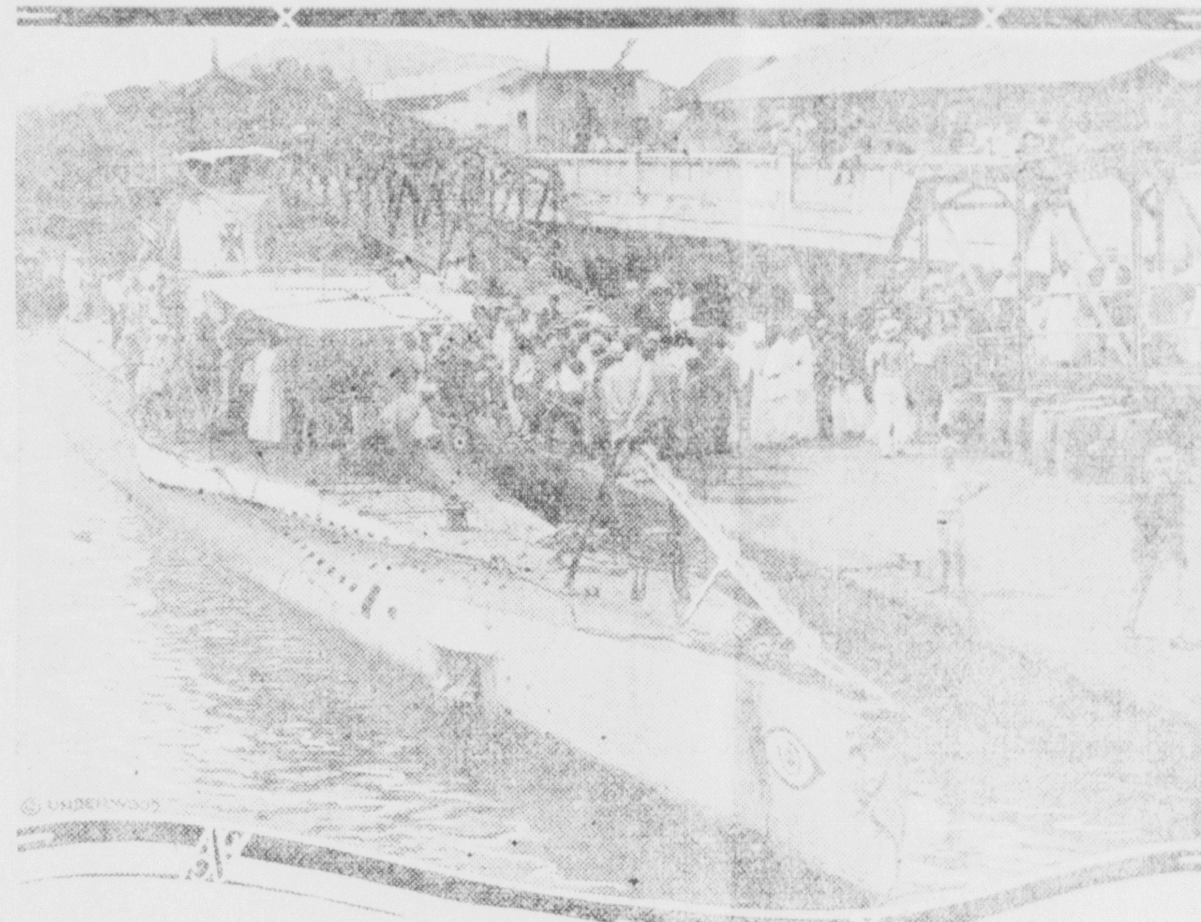

NEVER BEFORE HAVE BOYS OF '61 INVITED VETERANS OF OTHER WARS TO MARCH WITH THEM. HEAVY RAIN MARS CLOSING PART OF GREAT VICTORY PARADE IN COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 10.—(Associated Press)—Warriors of four American wars today marched in the Victory Parade of the G. A. R. which is holding its national encampment here. G. A. R. officials said it was the biggest parade of the veterans in the past decade. Never before had the boys of '61 invited veterans of other wars to march with them in their annual parade.

In the line of march were several aged Mexican War veterans riding in automobiles. Hundreds of Civil War veterans also rode in machines, but thousands marched behind their flags and life and drum corps. Heroes of Spanish-American and European wars paraded behind battle flags carried on the fields of Europe.

Before the parade was more than half over a heavy rain storm broke. The long line of marchers at first wavered and broke, the veterans seeking shelter. Thousands of the veterans were drenched to the skin. In a few minutes the streets which would have been packed with marchers and lined with spectators, were nearly empty. Undaunted by the rain some of the veterans continued to parade. Others waited until the worst of the storm was over and then reformed their lines, marching past the reviewing stand.

TROOPS SENT TO BOSTON BY THE GOVERNOR

Lawlessness Rampant in City without Adequate Police Protection.

Governor Coolidge Sends Fourth Regiment and Machine Gun Company.

(By Associated Press.)

Boston, September 10.—Lawlessness was rampant in Boston today. Without adequate police protection private citizens were left to their own resources to protect their lives and property.

Since the police struck there has been no organized police power able to cope with the situation that last night approached anarchy and today appeared to grow more serious.

By proclamation Mayor Peters assumed control of the Boston police department and called upon the governor for troops to assist him in restoring and maintaining public order during the strike of the police.

Governor Coolidge promptly responded by calling out the Fourth Brigade of infantry and a machine gun company. Mayor Peters at the same time, acting on his own authority, called to his assistance 1,000 soldiers stationed in Boston. About 4,000 members of the state guard were thus made available for police duty.

THE HOODLUM AND CRIMINAL ELEMENT RULE

Boston Tuesday Night was Virtually Abandoned to Lawless.

(By Associated Press.)

Boston, September 10.—Last night the city was virtually abandoned to the hoodlum and criminal. For some reason not publicly explained the volunteer force which had been expected would go on duty was not called out until this morning.

Attacks on women throughout the night were frequent. In numerous parts of the city there were villainous assaults.

A strike of city firemen was threatened this afternoon in sympathy with the striking policemen.

The looting last night resulted in damage of $300,000 according to police officials. The banks and regular mercantile institutions were protected by their own guards but the small retailer was at the mercy of mobs.

Store windows to the number estimated at 300 were smashed in and goods by the armful carried away.

GREAT CROWDS PACK AVENUES FOR PARADE

Leadens Skies Fail to Lessen Enthusiasm of Vast Course of People.

(By Associated Press)

New York, September 10.—With General Pershing at their head and with the cross of war twinkling on their banners, the First Division "regulars" marched down Fifth Avenue today under leaden skies.

Their colors of three regiments of infantry were twined with the forragere of France, symbol of gallantry and on the breasts of hundreds were the gay ribbons betokening medals bestowed for heroism.

Enormous crowds have packed Fifth Avenue in days gone by for this is the fourth division New York has seen on the march, but never in the city's history had such a multitude turned out for any pageant. It was a great holiday for the metropolis.

PERSHING LEADS VICTORIOUS FIRST DIVISION PARADE

City's Most Impressive Military Spectacle.

Countless Thousands Pay Tribute to Glorious First

"Pershing's Own" Conspicuous in the Parade.

Great Commander Looked His Best.

(By Associated Press)

New York, September 10.

Countless thousands of Americans, flushed with the pride of victory, paid tribute here today, in what probably was the city's most impressive military spectacle to the nation's leader in the world war, General John J. Pershing, Commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary Force, and to the far-famed First Division.

The sun-burned Missourian, looking as fit as a youthful Indian despite his 50 years—the soldier who said to the shade of LaFayette at his tomb in Picpus: "LaFayette, we are here!" and whose army of 1,250,000, the largest force of Americans ever to fight on foreign soil, turned the tide of possible Allied defeat into victory—today led down Fifth Avenue 22,000 men of the First Division in a procession which stirred the blood of every spectator.

Ahead of the bronzed veterans, mostly "regulars" who had been abroad nearly two years and a quarter, and whose fighting was the admiration of every poilu and British Tommy, was General Pershing's guard of honor, a regiment of 3,600 men picked from all seven of the American regular army divisions in France. This unique contingent, known as "Pershing's own" and composed of two companies from each regiment of the division represented, the companies in turn being formed of one squad from each company in the regiment, was a special feature of the parade.

Accompanying General Pershing at the head of the division rode Major General Edward F. McGlachlin, commanding, and with him two other former commanders of the First, Major General Willis L. Sibert, who took the troops to France and Lieutenant General Robert L. Bullard who took them into action and later relinquished command to take a higher post. With them were a host of other officers, including Brigadier General Frank Parker of Charleston, S. C., and other commanders some of whom saw their first active service with the division in France.

The troops in line represented 47 States of the Union and several of the insular possessions and among the marchers were more than 4,000 "old time" doughboys whose only recorded home is the United States army. Trudging along under the weight of full combat equipment, every pack in place, rifles clean and bayonets gleaming in the sun, the fighters presented a picture of aggressiveness and force. From 110th Street, where the parade started, to the Washington Arch, where it disbanded, the throngs along the curbs kept up almost tumultuous cheering.

"There comes the Sixth Field Artillery!" someone shouted. A few moments later this famous organization, Battery C of which on October 23, 1917, fired the first shot at the Germans, came into sight and was widely acclaimed.

Delegations of home folks from southern New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware and eastern Pennsylvania, whose 2,700 sons or kinsmen were in the First Division, were on hand to do them honor along with the men from other sections of the country. Many of these fighters, members of the 18th Infantry, wore the French fourragere, the red and green cord signifying that the Croix de Guerre with palm had been twice conferred for conspicuous gallantry in action. The fourragere was bestowed upon the 18th by Brigadier General Bracquet of the French army, while officers and men were lined up on the decks of the transport Mobile just before it sailed from Brest.

An epitome of America's fighting machine in Europe, the First Division presented what military men say

 Court, Tuesday morning, and upon be-passing sentence, "that the law permitted me to tie you to a tree in the court house yard and there publicly would be just punishment for such a man as you."

The man is alleged to have beaten

LOCAL RESULTS IN LANDSCAPING

It has become more and more apparent within the last few years that an extensive plan of landscaping has been in progress in Washington and is steadily increasing. Dozens of beautiful homes about the city have been augmented both in appearance and value by careful and methodical expert gardening, all or most of which has been accomplished by local landscape artists.

The fruits of earlier work of this kind have become strikingly manifest this summer and give promise of the advance in city beautification that the next few years may bring.

One of the best examples of this sort may be found in some remarkable private hedges to be seen on East Court street.

As in other matches women will be

LOCAL CITIZENS ENJOY OUTING ON LAKE GEORGE

Mr. J. A. Van Gundy, who with relatives is spending a short time on Lake George, Indiana, writes interestingly of his surroundings in the following letter to The Herald:

Lake George, Ind.,
September 8, 1919.

Editor The Herald:

I am writing you a line or two to tell you of a country which is filled with the wonderful handwork of nature.

This land lies within 250 miles of Washington C. H., in the country bordering on the state line between Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan. It is abundant in small lakes, one of the most popular being Lake George. This is where our party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sessler, Miss Bernice Sessler, my wife and myself are spending our vacation. It is a beautiful body of water, clear as crystal, never becoming muddy even in time of a storm, surrounded by a fine Michigan forest on one side and the Indiana hills on the other.

During these warm days, there is a gentle breeze wafted over the lake which is very welcome to the hot, tired and dusty travelers, who come to its banks for a rest from their worldly cares.

In the comfortable cottages here may be found people from all points of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. People who enjoy business but who love to spend a few days studying the wonderful lessons which nature has to teach.

This is a fine place for fishing, boating and bathing. Three of us caught sixty-eight bluegills yesterday. As to the rowing, even small children are allowed to handle the boats and there has never been but one person drowned and that was through disobedience of the law. The beaches here are fine for bathing as they are sandy and slop off very gradually to deep water. The deepest points in the lake are about eighty-five or ninety feet.

We are certainly enjoying the beauty of it all and hope that more people from Washington C. H. and vicinity will visit here next season.

Yours very truly,
J. A. VAN GUNDY.

SERBS DESTROY ALL EVIDENCE OF GREAT CRIME

(By Associated Press)

Sarajevo, Bosnia, July 10.—(By Mail)—The slavs have torn down the beautiful monument of granite and bronze which the Austrians erected to the memories of Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife, Sophia, Duchess of Hohenburg, which stood at a corner of the bridge here where their assassination by Prinzip furnished the spark that set off the world war. It bore a bronze plaque showing the figures of both Ferdinand and Sophia.

Now that Bosnia-Herzegovina has passed from the rule of Austria and become a part of the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, the parts of the monuments have been stored in the Museum of Sarajevo. When the curators has time they will be assembled for the edification of the students of history and to satisfy the curiosity of sight-seers.

Sarajevo seems almost to have forgotten the bomb-throwing and is well on its way toward making "business as usual." As a demobilized soldier said, "We're all sick of the war business!" But the mixed population and the undertone of sympathy for Austria lead one to wonder what may happen in the generation after that of Prinzip.

GARDEN CITIES ARE PLANNED BY THE BRITISH

London, August 23.—(By Mail)—millions of pounds are to be spent in the creation of a system of industrial garden cities which ultimately will rim metropolitan London. The scheme, just outlined, is the most elaborate city-building project ever undertaken in England and is an adaptation of the model industrial town idea originated some years ago in the United States.

Building on the first of these "flower garden" suburb cities is to begin next year north of London, according to newspaper announcements. The town will be self supporting and will cover several thousand acres. Within its precincts will be an agricultural area. Its population will be supported by several engineering industries to be located there.

The project is an attempt not only to solve London's housing problem, which has become a grievous one, but to prevent an overwhelming congestion of the city's industries and other commercial activities.

This is the last discount, as for gas and electric light bills.

The New Hospital

The working organization to carry forward to success the project for a new, larger and very necessary hospital for Fayette county is measurably perfected. There are yet a few preliminary arrangements to be made.

The hospital facilities in this county are woefully short of what the community needs. Our present institutions are all splendidly equipped and conducted. They are up to date in almost every particular save size.

Only a very small percent of the community demands can now be complied with and extensions or additions to the present main public hospital are absolutely impossible. Then, too, the location of the hospital has much to do with the successful treatment of the unfortunate, no matter what the cause.

The quiet sections of the city, light and air and measurable isolation are now very correctly regarded as a part of the essential equipment.

The new proposal meets, at once these very necessary requirements. The old Persinger homestead, back among the trees in spacious grounds, removed from the disturbances of passing vehicles or near neighborhood activity, is an ideal place, easily accessible and yet quiet and removed.

Through good business management and the generosity of the former owners that ideal property has been secured for hospital purposes on very advantageous terms and everything is all set now for the interested people to take advantage of a really remarkable opportunity.

The hospital is no longer a luxury for the particular people; it is a community necessity. Sick folks must have the best of care, no matter what the affliction, and all authorities now agree that there is only one place where such attention can be secured—a real hospital capable of serving the needs of the community.

The physicians and surgeons of the community have done splendidly with very limited facilities, but the people have felt keenly the restrictions which have limited their activities.

A new hospital of which the county may feel justly proud is within easy grasp—the opportunity will not be neglected.

Falls Short

While there is some encouragement to be gained from the July report of railroad revenues that the government, for the first time since assuming control of the transportation lines, has earned enough to pay the rentals to the companies, yet we must not be unmindful of the fact that rates are still at the war-time high standard and that the service to shippers is fully as unsatisfactory as it was in time of war's congestion.

The advocates of permanent government ownership, or control, of the railroad lines of the country will find little in the experience we have had to back up their arguments.

Even this July showing of rentals earned, in view of present rates and service rendered falls far short of being sufficient to furnish comfort to those who argue against a return of the railroads to their owners or even to those who would hedge that return about with drastic restrictions holding a government supervision which, in effect, would be control.

The big questions now in transportation problems are first, service to the shippers of the land—adequate and prompt—and second, a material reduction in rates.

Logic Supports Statements

There may be some politics in the statements made by President Wilson, in his address to the Minnesota legislature, at St. Paul on Tuesday morning, that there can be no material reduction in high living costs until the peace treaty is finally executed and the place of the United States, in the rearranged condition of the world's affairs is definitely settled, but if so, logic seems to support them as well as political expediency.

We all understand that the world looks to the United States for the necessary financial aid to readjust affairs on a peace basis. Commercial order cannot come in the world until the place and part of America is fixed.

It is equally evident that this nation cannot set its own affairs in order until the burden and responsibility of fixing that status, to our own satisfaction, is finally disposed of. We cannot, with any reason to hope for a proper solution, undertake the settlement of vital internal troubles until we are relieved of the constant turmoil over the peace treaty.

We cannot set our minds on the determination of vital domestic problems, like high living costs, and give them our entire attention and best thought if we are uncertain and disturbed over the great problem of what our status in the new world is to be—what we are expected to do and what burdens and what benefits we are to have.

POETRY FOR TODAY

SATISFIED
The shadow falls, the path I can not trace;
Fear not, my heart, if only faith abide;
If faith abide, thou conquerest time and place;
Some day, somewhere, thou shalt behold His face;
O yearning heart, thou shalt be satisfied.

The shadow falls, the shadow cannot stay;
Hope on, pray on, thou wilt not be denied;
Over the burnt-out embers of today
The golden morrow rises, and always
The promise stands—thou shalt be satisfied.
I cannot say to what far land I go
When I embark upon the foaming tide;
Or, if I'll find the things I yearn for so,
Ever at all, O heart, I do not know;
I only know thou shalt be satisfied.

I follow, moving toward the deep and vast,
I follow hope, my star and faithful guide;
I shall rejoice in trials over past,
And see that Face, O heart of mine, at least,
In whose dear look thou shalt be satisfied.
—The Congregationalist.

Old Shoemaker Now Has Stomach as Good as New

Freud of Constipation and Indigestion by Dr. Parker's Treatment.

When a person reaches the age of 45 the stomach is apt to be faulty. But W. A. Martin, Barbersville, W. Va., tells a story interesting to old and young. "For years I suffered from indigestion and constipation. After taking all kinds of medicines, I was told by a friend to try Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation, saying he would himself refund my money if I did not get relief. The first box gave me relief. I had been suffering for years. I am no longer bothered with sour stomach, gas and foul breath, can eat any food although I am now 63 years old."

"Get a box of Dr. Parker's Treatment of your druggist. Your dollar will be refunded if it fails in your case.—Adv.

DEMONSTRATING THE NEW CAR

NO NEW CARNEGIE LIBRARIES NOW

Columbus, Sept. 10.—No more Carnegie libraries will be built in Ohio at present, according to the announcement today by the Ohio Institute for public efficiency.

Failure of some Buckeye cities to keep pledges for maintaining libraries, built by the aid of the late steel king's millions, has caused the entire state to be placed under a ban by the Carnegie corporation it was meant.

Several cities including Youngstown and Cincinnati, which desired to proceed with new libraries were informed their requests would be considered when delinquent cities paid up their pledges.

Cities agreed to provide for library running expenses 10 per cent yearly of the money donated by the Carnegie corporation, it is explained. At least 16 Ohio communities are not keeping their pledges, according to James Bertram, secretary of the corporation, and eleven have failed to report on their condition. Some of them declare the taxation situation in the state is responsible.

NO TEACHERS SCHOOLS CLOSED

Lima, September 10.—Several country schools could not open here on Monday because of the lack of teachers. There are also a number of vacancies in the city schools.

Steele, of Sedalia Missouri, music chairman of the General federation, will also be present together with a number of club celebrities.

The ceremony will take place at the home on East Market street.

A spirited contest and music were enjoyed before the bride-elect opened her gifts, a choice collection of the beautiful and the useful.

The color scheme, yellow and white, was prettily carried out in both the decorations and the dainty refreshments served. Martha Ervin presided at the punch bowl and Miss Ervin was assisted in the hospitalities by Miss Corinne Barker.

The following were guests: Misses Mary Lee and Corinne Barker, Nellie Higbee, Gretchen Blankenship, Harriet Morrow, Gladys Erich, Janice Wilson, Dorothy Thomas, Florence Ervin, Helen Hidy of Springfield, Ruth Bryan of London, Lulu Moore of Washington C. H., Mesdames Bert Ervin, Tedie Barker, Ford Ervin.

That the United States faced a greater loss from an invisible enemy than she did from her war activities overseas is shown in an announcement just issued by the National Tuberculosis Association Headquarters, following a country wide health survey. Total American death in the World War amounted to 67,882 soldiers, sailors and marines. Figures just tabulated at headquarters of the National Tuberculosis Association show that or the period in which this country was engaged in war approximately 200,000 persons died from tuberculosis.

"Much of the numerous death toll in this country could be prevented," said Dr. Victor C. Vaughn, president of the National Tuberculosis Association, who will sponsor the Red Cross Christmas seal sale. "Our data received from health experts throughout the United States show more than a million persons are suffering from the white plague today."

"War bulks large and takes possession of the stage. It is spectacular and therefore attracts attention. But tuberculosis, even though it bulks larger, is an unseen enemy and we are likely to pass by unheeding."

"Shot and shell maim and cripple; the tubercle bacillus saps and undermines. Shot and shell come crashing through your home and you rebuild your house. The tubercle bacillus sneaks in and with pitiless tenacity lingers on until it sweeps your table bare and leaves your children pale and listless."

More than 1500 state and city anti-tuberculosis leagues and associations join the national organization in its country-wide crusade, while will culminate in the Red Cross Christmas seal sale, from which funds to carry on the work are chiefly derived. It is estimated that $6,500,000 will be needed to carry out the program planned.

was the first parade of its kind in the country's history. That is, not only were the doughboys equipped with rifles, bayonets, packs, helmets, canteens, belts and ammunition, but every piece of the Division's artillery was in line, as well as the Ammunition Trains, the rolling kitchens and other paraphernalia of a modern fighting unit.

Even the horses and mules, many of which had served throughout the war, were decorated with service stripes and all of the First's insignia, just as it was marked in France, was shown. The Division's flags all bore the Croix de Guerre with which it was honored by the French nation, the 28th Infantry having two of those emblems to its credit.

Machine guns of various types and sizes, tanks and mortars, grenade-throwing devices were parts of the parade exhibits and were viewed with proud wonderment by the crowds. Then there were the anti-aircraft guns whose muzzles often pointed skyward as if to bring down hostile flyers.

Among the fighters who won distinction for gallantry and were promoted on the field and who figured in the parade was Lieutenant Colonel Clarence Heubner of the 28th who was a regular army sergeant when the war started. He was wounded at Scissons and left the hospital to re-enter the battle. Another was Supply Sergeant Powell of Company M, also of the 28th who, despite his non-combatant duties, frequently volunteered and in one engagement gained his objective after every enlisted man and ranking officer in his detachment had been wounded or killed.

At the Metropolitan Museum of Art, General Pershing left the line to review the troops as they marched southward and as he stepped into the reviewing stand where Federal, State and City officials awaited him, he was accorded a great ovation. Thereafter as each unit passed the reviewing point the order "eyes right!" was given and the veterans saluted their Commander-in-Chief.

The units in the parade, in their order, besides the Division Headquarters and Headquarters Troop, Quartermaster and other similar branches, were the 1st Machine Gun Battalion; 2nd Field Signal Battalion; 1st Engineers and Engineer Train; 1st Infantry Brigade headquarters; 16th and 18th Infantry; 2nd Machine Gun Battalion; 2nd Infantry Brigade Headquarters; 26th and 28th Infantry; 3rd Machine Gun Battalion; 1st Field Artillery Brigade headquarters; 5th, 6th, and 7th Field Artillery; Train Headquarters; Mobile Veterinary Unit; Military Police; Motorized Battalion; 1st Ammunition Train; 1st Supply Train; Sanitary Train; Field Hospital and Motor Transport Corps.

FIRST PRACTICE FOR FOOTBALL

Coach Moorehead of the High School issued his first call for football candidates Wednesday and the results of the initial turn out were most gratifying.

Wednesday afternoon the first practice was held and consisted mainly of the players and coach getting acquainted. Great possibilities are opened up for one of the best teams in this part of the state, it is said, with the return to school of some of the stars of two years ago when the local squad was almost invincible.

Practice for the first two weeks will determine the positions to be played by the backs and line men.

About 75 gallons of paint will be required to cover the huge pipe. The first coat has been applied and the second coat will be put on as soon as favorable weather conditions will permit.

The scaffold was raised to the top of the 135-foot pipe by attaching a Ford auto to the rope.

SPECTACULAR CAREER ENDS

(By Associated Press)

Budapest, August 12.—(By Mail)—"Comrade" Szemueli, one of the organizers of the Red Army, who was shot while attempting to cross the Austrian frontier after the fall of Bela Kun, was one of the most spectacular figures in the brief but sanguinary reign of the Hungarian Bolsheviks.

Szemueli was thirty years old, the son of a small landowner. He worked on the Budapest radical newspaper, Nepve, and was rather an obscure member of the Left Wing of the Social Democratic party. He entered the army, and was among the officers captured by the Russians in 1915. They sent him to a Siberian prison camp where he remained until the Bolshevik revolution, when he went to Moscow. Here he took a leading part among the agitation of the prisoners of war, and became interested in the Bolshevik movement.

Returning to Hungary after the down fall of the Hapsburgs, he worked unceasingly in preparation for the Bolshevik coup d' etat, enjoying great popularity among the soldiers.

After the Soviet government was set up, Szemueli entered the government as a member of the War College and passed much of his time organizing the Hungarian Red Army. He took a personal part in resisting the Rumanian advance.

When You Want It Bad You Want It Good

This is not a paradoxical statement, but a truth which may easily be demonstrated when it comes to the purchase of drugs.

If the drugs you buy are impure, if they lack strength, or if they are improperly compounded you may never know the difference—yet the difference might mean the difference between sickness and health.

When you need something badly—make sure that you obtain good quality.

Poor drugs are expensive at any price.

Come to us and you'll get the finest drugs and service obtainable. The successful record of our store is a guarantee of this fact.

IT'S A PEACH TAKE A LOOK

Malloy Bros. the nursery men and Landscape Gardeners at Jonesboro west of the city have placed on exhibition in the window of the Jno. A. Worrell Jewelry store a peach. That's what it is too—a peach—and as near a perfect peach as one could imagine. The coloring and shading is an artist's dream. The specimen weighs 5½ ounces and measures 1½ inches in circumference and is known as The J. H. Hale peach.

It is the product of a three year old tree—what the nursery men call a baby tree, but though young in years and small in size this tree produced the perfect specimen on exhibition in the Worrell window and thirteen mates to it—14 peaches in all averaging in weight a shade over 5 ounces each in weight.

The Malloy Bros. are sending full reports of the peaches and the tree's history to the state authorities. The seed of these remarkable peaches are being carefully preserved in order to perpetuate the remarkable fruit.

REPAIR OF MAINS NEARLY FINISHED

Repair of the gas mains under that part of the up-town streets to be resurfaced this fall, is nearing completion, and it is believed that the mains will be in condition to go through a great many years without additional attention or disturbing the asphalt streets.

While the work has been under headway it has caused considerable inconvenience to traffic.

Some of the first openings in the street by the company were not replaced properly, it is alleged, and depressions already are appearing, so that further attention on the part of the company will be necessary. The depressions have appeared on Main street, more attention apparently having been given the later work.

CLAIM CANNING PLANT KILLS FISH

Complaint has been made to officials of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association that some material being emptied into the creek from the canning plant in Jeffersonville was causing the death of large numbers of fish.

A number of bass weighing four pounds and a sucker weighing nine pounds were included among a large number of fish found along the stream, it was announced.

Deputy Game Warden Hard was sent to the scene to investigate.

MAY NOT REBUILD HUGE WAREHOUSE

It is very probable that the huge warehouse and storeroom of the H. G. Coffman Manufacturing plant which was destroyed Monday night by fire will not be rebuilt.

As announced at the plant no plans have yet been laid for the construction of a new building to occupy the same site and the present indications are that the space will be used only for a lumber yard.

The building destroyed was two stories, 300 feet in length and 60 feet wide.

WANTED INCREASE OF $2 PER WEEK

The striking telephone operators at Hillsboro who walked out Saturday night are asking for an increase of $2 per week, having been on the payroll at $8 per week, or $32 per month, and required to work over other Sunday with no extra compensation.

Public sentiment around Hillsboro is said to be with the strikers, inasmuch as it is claimed that the Home Company recently obtained a heavy increase in rates charged subscribers.

LEASE MORE LAND

Thad McLain, of New Holland, and J. M. Minturn, of Washington C. H., directors of the McLain Oil company of Texas, were in the city today on their way to Columbus.

Mr. McLain reports that his company has obtained a lease on an 80 acre tract, two miles south of Iowa Park, Wichita county, Texas one of the biggest oil producing districts in the state.

The new tract now has four wells producing seventy barrels of oil daily. The last well shot on the McLain tract was a duster.—Circleville Herald.

PREDICT DECLINE IN CLOTHING PRICES

Chicago, September 10.—Delegates to the convention of the National Association of Retail Clothiers Tuesday predicted a reduction in the price of clothing in the near future.

"It's got to come," said Fred Levy of Louisville. "Lower prices are on the way and we fellows will sing the loudest when the change comes. Men can't be induced to part with $75 or $80 for a business suit. The principal reason for the present high prices is the cost of labor. There really is not much profiteering and what little there is we intend to stop."

TAX COMMISSION CALLS AUDITOR FOR DISCUSSION

County Auditor Glenn M. Pine has received notification from the State Tax Commission to meet the commission in Columbus on Sept. 16th for the purpose of discussing the re-assessment of real estate in 1926, the notice stating that auditors of sixteen counties in this part of Ohio will meet on this day in question.

Auditor Pine like the other Auditors notified, has been requested to bring a list of transfers showing the actual value at which sales were made and a list of numerous values as listed for taxation.

The announcement makes it evident that all counties in Ohio are to re-assess their real estate in 1926.

However, County Auditor Pine long since had been instructed by the County Commissioners to proceed with arrangements for reappraising the real property of the county, and will begin definite arrangements about November 1st.

THE car with two or three of the different brands of tires reflects on the owner's ability to buy judiciously.

People who buy Firestone Gray Sidewall Tires are no longer in the ranks of the tire doubters.

They know that at least one make of tires has more miles of wear. They know that the name Firestone carries assurance and that the tires are uniformly good.
